

CALL FOR PAPERS

For the National Philosophical Counseling Association at the Eastern Division Meeting of the American Philosophical Association, Baltimore MD, January 2017.

The National Philosophical Counseling Association (formerly the American Society for Philosophy, Counseling, and Psychotherapy) is seeking papers, panel proposals, and commentators on a topic relevant to philosophy and counseling for its meetings that will be held in conjunction with the Eastern Division Meeting of the American Philosophical Association in Baltimore MD, January 4-7, 2017.

Proposals for other types of presentation are also welcome!

Papers should be of approximately 25 minutes' reading time. Please submit paper abstracts (of at least 100 words) or panel proposals to the NPCA Eastern Division Coordinator, James Stacey Taylor, at the address below BY JUNE 5th, 2016.

Persons who wish to serve as commentators should also contact Dr. Taylor.

Papers presented at the NPCA meetings have the opportunity of being peer-reviewed for publication in the International Journal of Philosophical Practice.

Please submit abstracts of papers for presentation by snail mail or email to:
